

ABOUT APHTOKUR

KEY INFORMATION

Aphtokur is a soothing, healing mouth gel. Aphtokur has a unique composition with repairing and analgesic components. Aphtokur can be used to treat ailments in the mouth, such as ulcers, minor wounds and painful gums. Aphtokur mouth gel contains a combination of film-forming, analgesic and healing components that alleviate discomfort quickly. Aphtokur mouth gel is free of alcohol.

COMPOSITION

- PEA - palmitoylethanolamide
Anti-inflammatory - effects similar to hydrocortisone
- Enoxolone - glycyrrhetic acid
Anti-inflammatory, Antibacterial - effects similar to hydrocortisone
- Polidocanol - Laureth-9
Local anaesthetic - effects similar to lidocaine
- Opuntia Ficus Indica and Olea Europaea extract
Muco-adhesive, Anti-inflammatory, wound healing - effects similar to hyaluronic acid
- Base
Sorbitol, Aqua, Propylene glycol, Glycerin, Laureth-9, Polyacrylic Acid, Palmitamide MEA, Caprylyl glycol, Sodium Saccharin, Opuntia Ficus Indica Extract, Olea Europea Leaf extract, Glycyrrhetic Acid, PVP, Sodium Hydroxide

INDICATIONS

Aphtokur can be used to treat ailments in the mouth, such as ulcers, minor wounds and painful gums. Aphtokur mouth gel has been developed for adults and children from the age of 3 years.

REGULATORY STATUS

- Cosmetic product (EU CPNP notified)
- Manufactured in a GMP plant in Belgium

USPs

- Effective from the first application
- Unique combination of anti-inflammatory, anaesthetic and wound healing components
- Superior muco-adhesive and wound healing properties due to Opuntia Ficus Indica extract

WWW.APHTOKUR.BE